INVEST 10% OF YOUR INCOME IN WAR BONDS

... BUT 10% SEEMS A PRETTY BIG SACRIFICE.

SACRIFICE? LISTEN BROTHER, THAT 10% GUARDS YOUR LIFE, YOUR FAMILY, YOUR HOME, AND THE OTHER 90%... AND YOU GET IT ALL BACK, LATER...WITH INTEREST! ...IT'S A PRIVILEGE!

Courtesy of Detroit Free Press

Save 10%... to Save 100%

All over the nation, patriotic Americans are spending less and saving more —putting at least 10% of their incomes into War Bonds and Stamps. So our boys can have the planes and tanks and guns they need to fight and attack and WIN for us!

So the Nazis and Japs will wish they hadn't tried to enslave America, too—and won't ever try it again!

And it's going to take 10% in War Bonds to do it!

So, if you've been postponing buckling down, remember, it's "Everybody 10%" or "Nobody (except our Axis masters) having a cent."

Lynchburg, Va.

Dear Mr. Robinson,

I have just received a letter from my son, Cpl. John A. Booth, notifying me of his safe arrival somewhere in the South Pacific. He expressed a wish that I write and ask that you say "Hello" to his many friends in Appomattox through your paper. John was formerly stationed at Army Air Base, Topeka, Kansas.

Sincerely,
Bettie S. Booth

Lightning Kills Negro Youth Sunday P. M.

James R. Mosley, 11 year old colored boy living on the Harding farm near Stonewall, was killed when struck by lightning during a severe electrical storm in that section Sunday afternoon. He suffered a broken neck and died instantly. He was the son of Clayton and Elizabeth Mosley. He is survived by 3 brothers and one sister.

Funeral services were held Monday afte noon.

Lightning struck the home of Aubrey Fleshman Thursday afternoon, doing slight damage. A large tree at the home of Mrs. S. B. Fore near Chap, was hit Tuesday of last week.

MRS. ANNIE LUCADO

Mrs. Annie Kate Lucado, 53, wife of Edward Lucado, died suddenly at her home near here at eight o'clock Sunday night.

She was born in Buckingham County, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lucado. She is survived by the following children: Nelda Lucado, Ruby Lucado, Alton Lucado, and Mrs. George Page, of Appomattox, Homer Lucado, and Miss Pearl Lucado, of Lynchburg, Pvt. Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at 3:30 P.M., by the Rev. H.F. Jones, Rev Chas. E. Spain, and Rev. L. P. Brown. Interment was in the family cemetery.

We extend deepest sympathy to the bereaved family.

Conservation On The Farm

One of a series of articles about what Appomattox farmers are doing.

Among the first farmers in Appomattox County to cooperate with the old demonstration area and later on with the Robert E. Lee Soil conservation District was John E. Burnett, of Stonewall.

Mr. Burnett owns and operates two farms, has 76 acres of strip cropping and terracing, 117 acres of improved pastures, a badly field for supplementary grazing, has increased his cattle from eight to sixty head, practices selective cutting and replanting in his woodland and follows a three year rotation.

Mr. Burnett tells his friends and visitors that come to look over his farm that he is now raising more and better crops on less land, and is improving it at the same time. He also likes to tell about the first time a conservationist came to see him. He says that he told the conservationist that he wanted the best farm plan that it was possible to work up for his farm, and that now, after following the plan for several years, he still thinks that he has the best plan that he could follow.

He bears the responsibility of feeding and clothing the millions who have been made destitute by war. This metropolitan banker has held the highest offices in his state for 14 years, yet he is not considered a professional politician.

After graduation from college in 1899, he entered business and rose to treasurer of a textile company in seven years. Then he joined his brothers in the banking firm founded by his father.

During World War I he supervised purchases and shipments of supplies for the army abroad. He rose to the rank of colonel, and was awarded the DSC.

In 1928 he resigned as director of six corporations to assume the duties of lieutenant governor of New York state. From 1932 until last year he was governor. He resigned this high office to take on the duties of the Office of Foreign Relief, a federal bureau created by necessity of war.

Stonewall Dist. Votes Tues.

Plane Comes In Without Knocking

Army air corps authorities are investigating cause of this accident, while wrecking squads dismantle fighter plane that crashed into the living room of a cottage in San Bruno, Calif. Despite the terrific impact, the fuel did not ignite, and the pilot is recovering from minor injuries. He explained that he lost control in a steep dive. The residents were luckily out of the house at the time.

Next Tuesday, August 3rd, is the date for Democratic voters of Virginia to nominate candidates for local county officials. In Appomattox County the primary will be restricted to the Stonewall District. Two candidates in that district, Frank J. Smith and P. Brent Stratton will oppose each for the offic. of supervisor, to succeed T. E. Owen, who is not a candidate for re-election.

All incumbent county officers are without opposition and have been declared nominees without the formality of a primary.

A large turnout of voters is expected at the three precincts in the Stonewall District, where over 600 voters are registered. There has been a considerable mail vote in Stonewall Distric. Both Mr. Smith and Mr. Stratton have been active in a pre-primary campaign, and have been quietly lining up support.

After serving the district for a number of years as supervisor, Mr. Owen announced this spring that he would not be a candidate for re-election.

Father Darkl af

Mr. A. M. Goodman, one of the most active men for his age, in the county (he is in his upper 80's) was a pleasant visitor in our office recently. He had with him a very old Bible book used over half a century ago in teaching Sunday School lessons. Mr. Goodman has been an inspiring Sunday School teacher most of his adult life. We wish for him many more years of service.

One of our subscribers from Cullen, Va. recently received from their son in North Africa a letter containing a snapshot of his group of soldiers. Easily distinguishable in the group was Ned LeGrand, of Appomattox.

Grover Beasley, of out Hollywood way, was in town Monday and had a rattlesnake killed over the weekend by Jim Franklin. It was 3 feet, eight inches long and had four rattlers. Mr. Burnett, of Stonewall, recently was in town with a very large rattler. Seem to be plentiful this year, we regret to say.

Mr. Hunter G. Smith, looking far younger than his eighty-odd years, was another pleasant visitor in our office this week. Mr. Smith lives at 320 Green St., Fayetville, N. C. He wishes to invite any Appomattox boy stationed at Fort Bragg, N C. to come and visit him and assures them a real welcome. Easy bus connection, boys. Incidently, Mr. Smith has been a subscriber to this paper for some fifty years!

Radio reception is notoriously bad in the summer, but never was it worse than Sunday afternoon and night. You could catch the name of Benito Mussilini every once in a while, and that something unusual was taking place, but static ruined every news announcement. Result: up an hour earlier Monday morning for the morning papers.

All-out war has played havoc with family reunions this year. Holiday Lake used to have a family reunion nearly any Sunday.

Dr. Havilah Babcock paid us a very flattering compliment last week for our handling of news of Appomattox boys in the armed service. We must now confess to Dr. Babcock that credit for this regular feature should go to Mother Brightleaf.

Louie Ciola With Philadelphia Team

Louie Ciola, of Norfolk, formerly a star pitcher on the Appomattox Skyline League team, has signed a contract with the Philadelphia Athletics, of the American League. He made his big-league debut as a relief hurler last Sunday.

Hope to Ease Gas Restriction

Richmond, July 28.- Ralph K. Davies, deputy petroleum administrator has replied to Governor Darden's gas rationing protest letter to petroleum administrator Harold L. Ickes, expressing the belief that "some improvement in the supplies to civilians can be anticipated."

"The overload of petroleum to the East Coast," Mr. Davies wrote, "has increased from less than 100,000 barrels a day in the summer of 1941 to well over 1,000,000 barrels a day at present, and we expect it to exceed 1,600,000 barrels a day by the first of the year."

"Gasoline stocks in Virginia are not considered to be excessive at the present time," Mr. Davies informed the Governor.

REVIVAL AT ROCKS

A revival meeting will begin at Rocks Baptist Church on Sunday night, August 1, at 8:00 P.M.

The pastor, the Rev. A. C. Lawson, will do the preaching. Welcome to our services.

—A. C. Lawson, pastor.

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH

Church School at 10:00 A. M.
Worship at 11:00 A.M. Sermon subject, "The Place of the Cross in Christian Experience." Welcome to our services.

—A. C. Lawson, pastor.

HOME CANNING JARS

More home canning jars and covers were made in the first 5 months of this year than in the entire year of 1942, in anticipation of an unprecedented volume of home canning. Housewives will profit from a study of directions that come with each box of jars and covers, for the new three-piece canning top, glass lid, metal screw band, and rubber ring, must be used differently from other types of covers.

NO NEW TIRES FOR SPARES

New tires will not be rationed as spares in the next few months except to such persons as doctors.

Drivers that do not have a fifth tire usable for a spare occasionally, may get a certificate for a used or recapped tire for that purpose.

Best buy.. War Bonds.

MAY EQUALIZE GAS RATION

Equalizing of gasoline rationing throughout the United States east of the Rocky Mountains will be recommended by the Petroleum Administration for War within sixty days.

W. H. Ferguson is spending some time with his daughter, Mrs. Leonard Cawthorn.

Bank of Appomattox Depository For Withholding Tax

R. L. Burke, president of the Bank of Appomattox, stated today that his bank had been named a depositary for the Federal withholding tax. Mr. Burke said that employers may make deposits of this tax in the Bank of Appomattox, and such money will be placed in a U. S. Government account.

This will be a convenience to local employers.

Revenue Inspector Finds Cars Without $5 Federal Stamp

A deputy collector of the Internal Revenue Department was in Appomattox last Thursday afternoon, making a check on motor vehicles to see if they had the Federal $5.00 use tax sticker. In a short time he tagged over 25 vehicles that did not have this sticker. He stated that a further check would be made here soon.

He also asked that any case of theft of the stickers be reported at once to the deputy collector of internal revenue in Lynchburg.

Good news for civilians came today with the announcement that coffee rationing was being discontinued as of today.

1856 Teacher Contract Shows $12 Month Pay

We have possession of a school teacher's contract, dated in 1856, which throws an interesting sidelight on just what strides have been made in educational administration. The contract is an agreement between a group of parents and Henrietta W. Woolridge, the latter being the aunt of Mrs. J. H. Cheatham, of Appomattox. The parents signed a contract to pay the teacher $1.00 per pupil per month for a seven month session beginning in March, 1856. Nine parents signed the contract, three of them to send two pupils each, the rest one each, making a total monthly salary for the teacher of $12.
